

Linda Agnew

Occupational Therapist

Base: Manchester

Areas Covered: Nationwide

Specialisms

Mental Health

Absence Management

Vocational Evaluations

Expertise

- Accredited Functional Capacity Evaluator
- Occupational Health & Absence Management
- Vocational Evaluation & Rehabilitation
- Job Demands Analysis
- Mental Health Evaluation & Intervention
- Occupational Therapy Specific Assessment & Intervention
- Hand & Upper Limb Assessment & Treatment
- Sleep Evaluation & Intervention
- Service Development, Education & Training

Clinical & Professional Experience

Linda has 38 years of experience in occupational therapy, mental health, vocational rehabilitation, learning disabilities, general and community services, independent practice, management, and leadership. She is a highly competent clinician and educator with clinical expertise in mental health, learning disabilities, pain management and sleep difficulties, gained whilst working in the Channel Islands and the UK.

Linda is an accredited functional capacity evaluator and has also completed postgraduate training in Job Demands Analysis, advanced assessment and treatment of sleep problems, cognitive assessment and adult education.

Linda's career has encompassed developing, delivering, managing, and leading expert clinical services in both hospital and community settings in the NHS, private and independent healthcare. Linda is passionate about excellent services for clients and the therapist's ability to evidence this through clinical outcomes and measures.

Linda is a guest lecturer at Salford University and University of Central Lancashire and develops and delivers workshops and presentations on topics as varied as Health Economics, Vocational Rehab, Risk and Service Development.

CPD & Training

- Attendance at Royal College of Occupational Therapy Annual conferences 2014 - 2019
- Attendance at Regional study days, RCOT North West region, 2014 - 2019
- Montreal Cognitive Assessment update training 2019
- Advanced assessment and treatment of insomnia 2019
- Risk awareness and assessment workshops - delivered on behalf of RCOT - 2019
- Annual lectures and workshops, Salford University.

Memberships & Professional Qualifications

- Diploma in Occupational Therapy
- BHSc (Hons) Health Studies
- MA Management & Leadership
- Member of the RCOT
- Member of RCOT Consultancy service
- Past Chair of the English Board of Occupational Therapist, past vice-chair of RCOT Council, past chair of RCOT Audit committee
- Member of the RCOT Specialist Section for Independent Practice & Member of the North West Regional Group

For further information please call on 01698 207 755, or email helpis@weareobair.com or visit weareobair.com