Clinical Experience

- Nichole qualified as an Occupational Therapist in 2013 and has a vast array of clinical experience working in a variety of community and hospital environments. This has given her excellent knowledge of clinical pathways in various rehabilitation settings.
- As clinical lead OT in an NHS Trust trauma and orthopaedics department, Nichole has worked across several injury types including major orthopaedic trauma, musculoskeletal conditions and neurological conditions. In this role, she would provide expert assessment and treatment of many life-impacting conditions, working with the wider multi-disciplinary team to ensure that her patients' needs were met.
- Nichole has significant experience in working as a Community Occupational Therapist and in her most recent clinical post, she was Team Manager of the Adult Social Team, Essex. As well as team management, in this role she was responsible for providing therapy services for a variety of life-limiting conditions including spinal cord injury, severe brain injuries, neurological conditions and limb loss.

Rehabilitation Expertise

Rehabilitation Management

- Prior to becoming a case manager, Nichole was working within the personal injury industry as an Expert Witness, providing reports for brain injuries, spinal cord injuries and limb loss. Areas of expertise include mental capacity, housing adaptations and care requirements.

- Nichole uses her clinical experience in her day-to-day case management by supporting her clients to return to function following lifechanging injuries.
- Nichole is skilled in developing and co-ordinating multi-disciplinary rehabilitation programmes in community and hospital settings, enabling effective outcomes and working towards client goals.
- Through her clinical and case management work, she is experienced in working with GPs, multidisciplinary health teams, social services, employers, Insurers and Solicitors.

Vocational Rehabilitation

- Nichole is excellent at identifying expert guidance and providing the appropriate support for return to work.
- As an Occupational Therapist, she naturally focuses on a holistic and client centred approach, with goal setting to engage and motivate clients. She is an effective problem solver, using her critical thinking training to support a timely return to work, where appropriate.
